Royal Marines Commando | Officer Training | What to Expect
The Submarine Command Course, previously known as the Commanding Officers Qualifying Course, and informally known as The Perisher because of its supposed low success rate, is a training course for naval officers preparing to take command of a submarine. Created by the Royal Navy during World War I, the course was originally intended to address the high attrition rate of submarine commanders, as the previous method of handing down knowledge from officer to officer was prevented by wartime deaths.
