The Art of Haiku. What It Is: A haiku is a three-line, non-rhyming form of poetry that originated in Japan. The first line has five syllables, the second line has seven syllables, and the third line has five syllables. What To Do: Write the following haiku on the board and read it aloud. Then, clap out the syllables in each line:

poetry deals far more heavily in expression and emotion than most other types of writing—which is why it's a particularly great genre for middle-schoolers to work within. Tweens and young teens face a lot of complex scenarios and confusing emotions, and poetry offers a healthy outlet so that all of those feelings have somewhere to go.
