When I first heard that AAT's Level 4 Financial Statements paper was going to be a computer based assessment (CBA), I thought: 'This is great! Everyone knows CBA's are a doddle.' I was wrong. AAT has done a great job of producing a CBA that is still technically challenging and a fair test of your understanding and ability to apply your knowledge.

To pass Financial Statements, you should be getting just about full marks in tasks 1 and 2, so long as you are well prepared. They are worth 40 marks out of a possible 150. Your statements might not balance, but you could well have 39/40 marks. You will find a lot of level 3 concepts tested here, such as depreciation, accruals and prepayments, but in the context of a limited company.
