Most sports use statistics to evaluate skills. For example, basketball counts free throw attempts versus successes. In the pool and billiards cue sports, there is no clear system to statistically evaluate personal skills and abilities and those of other players. This book provides that objective evaluation system for pool and billiards

*A Primer on How to Practice
Pool Skills Effectively*

What people need to remember is that billiards is also a “you have to feel it” type of game. There will be things you learn and pick up that just feel “right” and feel “wrong”. Putting that perfect amount of energy or focus into certain shots versus the other or seeing the same patterns will start to come naturally to you over time.
