Four specific trends are driving the DVR industry: consumer content choice, consumer content control, personalization of content libraries, and the ability to transfer content from device-to-device and person-to-person. "Digital Video Recorders" features a macro and micro views of the already established yet still burgeoning DVR industry. As part of the NAB Executive Technology Briefing series, this book gives you a wealth of market knowledge, business models, case studies, and industry insights explained in a non-technical fashion. "Digital Video Recorders" discusses the impact of the technology across many different industries and platforms, explains hardware, software and technology of set-top boxes, DVR infrastructure, on-screen guides, planning and scheduling, content security, and more. Whether you are an executive in the broadcast, telecommunications, consumer electronic, or advertising space, you will expand your knowledge on DVR impact, explore new business opportunities, and get a brief overview of the technical terms needed. You will also be able to accurately analyze and understand the trends, projections and other data, all of which will help lead to the expedited growth and development of DVR industry.

Taking the field of human factors and ergonomics beyond state of the art, this volume focuses on advances in the use of ergonomics modeling and on the evaluation of usability, which is a critical aspect of any human-technology system. The research described in the book's 70 chapters is an outcome of dedicated research by academics and practitioners

You probably bought your TiVo so that you would never have to miss another baseball game, soap opera or Thursday night sitcom again. It's great at what it does and is much friendlier than your VCR. But did you know that your TiVo is capable of so much more than recording your favorite programs? That is why Leo Laporte, a top voice in consumer technology, and Gareth Branwyn, of Wired magazine, got together to bring you Leo Laporte's Guide to TiVo, a fun, light-hearted and in-depth look at TiVo and all that it is capable of. In this easy-to-follow guide, you will learn remote control trickery, how to upgrade your TiVo hardware, how to add a CallerID display to your television and how to add web capabilities. Take control of your television destiny with Leo Laporte's Guide to TiVo.

Learn the secrets outdoor industry won't tell you from TV show co-host, outdoor industry consultant, and TV show marketing director Dustin Vaughn Warncke in The Outdoor TV Show's Guide to the Industry. In this groundbreaking book, Warncke covers a wide variety of subjects such as: Prospecting and building relationships with sponsors and earning their favor. Airing your show on multiple traditional TV and Web TV platforms. Mistakes that most TV show teams make in the industry. How to build and audience and keep them coming back to your content. Producing quality content across multiple platforms. And MORE! The Outdoor TV Show's Guide to the Industry is filled with photos, screen shots, and several real world examples of proven techniques to grow your audience and film and produce quality content. This book was written to provide valuable insight for current and aspiring Outdoor TV Show Hosts. The inspiration for writing this book came through a partnership with the Co-Founders of DK Outdoor Adventures Outdoor TV Network and through a long standing relationship with the hosts of Mac and Prowler TV. This book provides valuable industry knowledge that has been gained through first hand experience. In this book , we will cover how to begin the journey of starting an Outdoor TV program on any budget, what separates home videos from actual TV shows and how networking to create benefit results in opportunity. Readers will learn strategies on how to achieve sponsorships, how to earn revenue through their programs, and how to dominate their industry by creating beneficial partnerships that offer massive exposure for their programs and for their sponsors. I hope this book will provide valuable insight into the world of Outdoor Industry Entertainment. While there are many verticals to begin gaining exposure for an outdoor show, there are very few that deliver the exposure level necessary to actually create income and value for the show host to sustain. This book will highlight different avenues to consider when trying to create income through an Outdoor TV program. After purchasing this book, we invite readers to contact us for assistance in beginning their journey to start their very own Outdoor TV Program.
