Psychological Theory – Entrepreneurship is a psychological process and concept. According to this concept, psychological factors are the primary source of entrepreneurship development. When there are sufficient number of persons having the same psychological characteristics in the society, then there are bright chances of development of entrepreneurship.

This has raised important questions at the intersection of digital technologies and entrepreneurship—on digital entrepreneurship. We consider two broad implications—less bounded entrepreneurial processes and outcomes and less predefined locus of entrepreneurial agency—and advance a research agenda that calls for the explicit theorizing of concepts related to digital technologies.
