outside the

"This edited autobiography is a frank and intimate account of over seventy-six years in the life of Federico Jiménez
Caballero, a man with deep
indigenous roots in which the supernatural is

Online Library

Federico

blended with the practical in everyday life.

Jiménez

Caballero's story is told in the first person based on his memories and real-life experiences as a man of mixed heritage who identifies with

Online Library

Federico

both his Mixtec indigenous culture as well as his Mestizo side of the family. As a child growing up in a rural, peasant village in Mexico, Jiménez Caballero faced challenges that most of us

Online Library

Federico

cannot even imagine yet
alone overcome;
as a young adult
he never stood still but instead depended on his survival skills and sheer will to become the successful
person he was predicted to be at his birth. In

Online Library Federico

the United States, Jiménez Caballero has created an identity that bridges his Mexican indigenous heritage with the overall Latino culture of southern California. Through all of his trials and tribulations he created a successful life for a young indigenous boy who had grown up in a culturally mixed, Mestizo-indigenous, peasant village where the cows and horses had to be chased off a grass landing strip. From these humble beginnings he moved up to the bright lights and fame as a jewelry artist to the stars in Hollywood.

Online Library

Federico

Jiménez Caballero's success as an entrepreneur and

Online Library

Federico

artist opened doors where he connected with the wealthy elite and became a celebrated philanthropist. The manuscript includes a brief personal introduction by Shelby Tisdale, editor of the manuscript, that focuses on her relationship with Jiménez Caballero, providing a glimpse into his Mixtec past and how it relates to his family heritage" - -
