Haunted: A Reverse Harem Fantasy Romance (The Academy of Spirits and Shadows Book 2) by C.M. Stunich (1) I knew something was wrong the moment I took off from a deserted patch of beach in Rúnda. The black sands that line the edge of the Ghost Sea were sparkling with gray specks of ash from the active volcano, the waters bubbling and boiling from the molten lava flowing just beneath the surface.

angel heroine and her seven boyfriends who just happen to be ghosts. This book includes foul language, violence, and sexual situations. This is book two in the series beginning with SPIRITED.

Just when Gesa thought her pride was complete... Halstad has vanished in the night, and the mage guild is denying any knowledge of his whereabouts. It would seem the mage doesn't want to be part of the pride...but Gesa's gryphon senses are tingling. Something smells like lies. To top it all off, the guild is refusing to sell mage contracts to anyone near Derek White. Even once Gesa finds her mage, she might not be able to keep him. Pirates, sirens, and demon besties are the least of Gesa's worries as she sets off to find Halstad. The gryphon hates lies, but this time it's Gesa keeping a secret from her pride. One that will change their lives. Author's Note: I was tired of reading the same old thing over and over again in reverse harem. Sick of all alpha male and fainting female all the time—and desperate to be able to tell the male characters apart—I tried to infuse some variety into my story. Gesa might not be your cup of tea, and that's okay—she doesn't care. Her lovers are as varied in physicality and personality as they are in supernatural race. And the characters all have their own definition of sexuality. I know reverse harem is all about the fantasy, and my fantasy is a bit outside the norm. You've been warned. Story length definitions: Flash fiction: 200-2,000 words Short story: 1,500-7,500 words Novelette: 7,500-15,000 words Novella: 15,000-40,000 words Novel: 50,000 words and up. *Gesa's Menagerie books are novellas of between 30,000-40,000 words. *This is a series. There will be unresolved plot threads at times/ occasional cliff hangers. *Do NOT read this series if you are easily offended. Contains: mentions of past trauma/rape, adult language (that's cursing kids, lots of it), and sexual content (including male/female, male/male, female/female, male/male/female, female/female/male and any other combination you can think of. Oh, and probably some tentacles and diphallia).

Brynn of Haversey is a spirit whisperer--a person blessed with the ability to see and speak to the dead. In the country of Amerin, she's one of a select few with magical gifts known as whisperers. Every year, the Royal College accepts a small number of new students, all magically inclined, all whisperers. Competition is brutal and the classes, nearly impossible to pass for a half-breed angel with two left feet and a massive pair of black feathered wings. Oh, and especially if she brings her six ghostly boyfriends with her to the academy (including the recently deceased crown prince, a master thief hanged for his crimes, and a former student of the Royal College). What kind of spirit whisperer is Brynn of Haversey if she can't exorcise her own soulmates? But Brynn isn't attending the most prestigious academy in the world to become a better exorcist--she's searching for a way to bring her lovers back to life ...SPIRITED is a full-length (300+ page) reverse harem romance with a (slightly) clumsy but still kick-butt angel heroine and her six boyfriends who just happen to be ghosts. Manderley Academy won't claim another victim. I'll do whatever it takes to get justice. It's time for Manderley's ghosts to come out and play.

To do what's right, I'll venture into hell, even if it will cost my life. Despite calling the Congregation my home, I, Natasha Grey don't belong. You see, unlike the other Creatures in my all male team--a vampire, a werewolf, a shifter, and a fae, I neither know my heritage, nor do I have any magic. At least that's what I thought until a rogue vampire rips my throat out and everything changes. Instead of dying, I heal, and he turns to dust. The Director of the Congregation confesses that I'm an angel and now that my identity

Bianca, a timid and shy university student, has no choice but to step outside her comfort zone to seek answers to her ghostly problems. The only problem is that, because of what she finds, she now has more questions than before. I've been in a book funk for a while now and this wholly and completely has brought me out of it. The mystery that kind of sits behind everything is perfect, as is the character development. I seriously can't believe waited this long to jump in to this series. -laci jo harding The things I see aren't for the faint of heart. And I am no longer willing to ignore them. Not even when my family, and my best friend, tell me to keep quiet about what's happening. They say people will think I'm crazy. Maybe I am. But the spirit haunting my professor's house is definitely trying to tell me something, and I'm the only one who can see it. The one person who can help me is my best friend's brother. But I don't know if I can trust him or his friends. Or if I can step outside the protective bubble I've built around myself. At this point it's a toss up: the ghosts will kill me or my panic attacks will. Either way, I figure I'm going to die.

A werewolf pack is only as strong as its weakest link and ours ... ours is a traitor. The only people I can trust now are my mates, the seven alpha males I call my own. Allies and enemies wear the same skins: witches, demons, faeries, vampires ... werewolves. It's impossible to tell what's hiding beneath the carefully crafted facades, the sinful slashes of smiling lips. Magic died in our people long ago; today, it blinks sleepy eyes and wakes up. Ancient gods raise their heads, spirits once thought to be whispers of myth, urge us to fight. They give us the power to defend ourselves from those who would take our magic as their own. This war we're fighting, it started with a seed of hate centuries ago. Now, it's here, and the fates are unwavering in their predictions--the White Wolf heralds the start of a new era for my people ... or the violent thrash of their downfall. My men and I, we'll defend ourselves with love and magic ... or die trying. PACK OBSIDIAN GOLD is a 400+ page full-length reverse harem/menage, urban fantasy/paranormal romance novel for mature teens and adults 18+ with a happily ever after waiting at the end of the series.
