While a young teacher working with paper and pencil probably isn't going to create the next new trend in marching band show design, if you're in a school that hasn't marched, and you don't have a budget for drill, you can accomplish a lot by watching other bands on youtube and sketching your own drill on paper. This page exists to show you how to get started.

Traditionally in East Texas, we use drill paper to write our drill. This paper is called Accu-Chart, like the software mentioned below, and has a grid outline of the field where you can manually write out your drill in as much detail as you would like. There is no one correct way of writing drill with Accu-Chart, but what is important is that you accurately chart your drill ideas for yourself to read, understand, and teach to your ensemble.
