They call him Umbrella Man because he makes it rain blood. He wants to play with Lilah Love. What he doesn't know is that Lilah is a killer too, and games just piss her off. The conclusion to the second duet in the Lilah Love series. Love Kills concludes where Love Me Dead left off.

FBI agent Lilah Love leads a complicated life. She's engaged to Kane Mendez, a man most call dangerous, but hey birds of a feather, do flock together. She's dangerous, too, and in ways only Kane understands. As for their happily ever after, well that might have to wait. Right now, an old enemy who should be dead is still living, Junior, her mystery letter writer, is stirring up trouble, and her family is trying to prove they're crazier than her. On top of that she has a new case: a dead woman in a bloody wedding dress. And since Lilah knows all too well there is no such thing as coincidence, clearly someone is sending her yet another message. She's going after Lucan and saving him no matter what the danger, or cost, to herself. Passion and destiny will bring Lucan and Kresley together but will Kresley prove to be Lucan's ultimate salvation or the the weapon that destroys the protectors of humanity, The Knights of White.

Secrets. Lies. A man. There's always a man. And there's always a truth to be told. I'm Hailey Anne Monroe. I ' m twenty-eight years old. An artist, who found her muse on the canvas because I wasn ' t allowed to have friends or even keep a journal. And yes, if you haven ' t guessed by now, I ' m that Hailey Anne Monroe, daughter to Thomas Frank Monroe, the man who was a half-percentage point from becoming President of the United States. If you were able to ask him, he ' d probably tell you that I was the half point. But you can ' t ask him, and he can ' t tell you. He ' s dead. They ' re all dead and now I can speak.

It's Lilah Love's job to inhabit a killer's mind. The unapologetically tough FBI profiler is very comfortable there. But her latest case is making her head spin. It's a string of brutal assassinations carried out across the country, each tied to a mysterious tattoo. Body by body, she's followed the clues all the way back to her hometown. And every step of the way, the killer has been following her. Here, beneath the glamour of the privileged Hamptons community, is a secret long buried but never forgotten. It's bigger than Lilah. It's powerful enough to escape the reach of the FBI. And it's more personal than anyone can imagine. Because it's hiding in Lilah's own past. To fight it, she's forced to turn to her lethally tempting ex, Kane Mendez. He's an expert at bringing out Lilah's darkest impulses. If she plans to survive, she's going to need them.
