As a private person, I have a passion for landscape, and I have never seen one improved by a billboard. Where every prospect pleases, man is at his vilest when he erects a billboard. When I retire from Madison Avenue, I am going to start a secret society of masked vigilantes who will travel ...

No Logo - The New York Times Web Archive

"No Logo, Klein's maiden book, is a connect-the-dots investigation that takes us everywhere from Gap swing ads to Indonesian sweatshops. Partly a sweeping study of modern consumption, partly a primer on pop culture, No Logo is that rare political treatise: never pedantic, elegantly written and creased with exhaustively researched arguments."
