Robot Dreams: Amazon.co.uk: Varon, Sara: 9781613838358: Books

Told visually without words, Sara Varon's graphic novel for children, Robot Dreams (2007), deals with the often melancholy nature of friendship and relationships in a world where unintended consequences and other people often get in the way of the people we love. The story begins with a lonely Dog receiving a package in the mail. It is a kit for a "build it yourself" tin robot.

Robot Dreams by Sara Varon

That is the story of ROBOT DREAMS. STORY REVIEW With the exception of some onomatopoeic sound effects, Sara Varon knows how to tell a story without ever writing down a single word. The true nature of friendship is revealed in this sincere and unpretentious story of Dog and Robot. It is sad, but not heart wrenching; it is poignant yet delicate – beautiful in its simplicity. Friendship is the ...
