Editorial Reviews Chambers infuses his novel with terrific dollops of medical science, wit, and bathroom humor (often literally), presenting audiences with a revenge blockbuster Stephen King would enjoy. Casual readers, however, should be warned that Chambers truly relishes crafting gross-out passages, including one at a buffet in which a vomiting woman "rotated from left to right as the torrent arced across the sneeze guards like a pressure wash." Also impressive is the author's pistonlike control over character development and pace; the better readers understand the horrendous Veronica
