When anyone acts in accordance with the devil, they become of a “devilish quality,” (John 6:70). When Christians are enticed by the devil, they are pulled away from God by honors, profits, pleasures, or whatever other things the devil uses to hinder their profiting by the Word, (Luke 8:12). These wicked spirits have such a heinous effect on the world, that the same condemnation that will befall them, will befall those who follow them. The proud fall into the condemnation of the devil, that is, by means of pride and high mindedness they too will be cast into hell fire, in the same manner as the devil will be. In consideration of such vile and wicked practices following the devil and his practices, Gifford directs the reader to resist such assaults and submit before God with the weapon of steadfast faith. His text is a famous one, “Be sober and watch: for your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith,” (1 Peter 5:8-9). Gifford expounds on how the Apostle Peter, 1) begins with an admonition or exhortation by which he stirs up all the faithful to sobriety and watchfulness with these words, “Be sober and watch,” 2) why it is important to move all men into this position of sobriety and watchfulness, seeing they have such a terrible and cruel adversary who continually seeks their eternal misery and destruction, “For your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.” And, 3) teaching how Christians shall withstand him, overcome him, and put him to flight, that so they may escape from his cruel tyranny, “Whom resist steadfast in the faith.” This is an exceedingly helpful work, that will arm the Christian in due manner to fight steadfastly in the power of Jesus Christ through his Spirit against the works and wiles of the devil. And Gifford will not only show how to do this, but how to do it effectively, with victory, through true Christian faith empowered by God’s Christ.

names given to Satan, your adversary who comes like a lion "seeking whom he may devour" (1 Peter 5:8). Today, many question and even mock the very existence of Satan, as well as the reality of evil. Even in the Church, by and large, there are few biblical resources on the subject to counter the destructive claims raised in today's humanistic culture. In The Fall of Satan: Rebels in the Garden you will discover the answers to 35 captivating questions, such as: How could one created good become so absorbed by evil? Why would God, who is not evil, allow evil to continue to exist? Did sin begin with Adam or was its origin found in Satan? When did Satan rebel against God's authority? Where can the answers be found to such provocative, spiritual questions that have been asked so many times over?

Carefully consider the biblical response, since it is the only completely reliable foundation for information about Satan. As our absolute authority, we must reject unqualified conclusions drawn from sources outside the Bible, such as the current ideas and traditions of the culture. No believer should be unaware of these sound answers found in the Bible.

This sermon preached by Charles Spurgeon invites us to meditate on God's presence. Meet the Holy Spirit and the signs of its presence in the life of the Christians. A message to bless your life.

Be sober; be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Nkjv If the devil is walking about seeking whom he may devour, it therefore means the devil is not omnipresence. The only authority that has that attribute is God. The devil does not have the power to devour everybody most especially the born again child of God, he only has power on those that gives him the privilege. But let me sound a note of warning to the believers, the bible says “the devil moves around like a roaring lion”, he is not the real roaring lion, but just mimicking the real lion. We all know that Jesus is the real roaring lion; he is the lion of the tribe of Judah. Revelation 5:5, Hosea 11:10 The devil is moving like the real lion, but his mission is not to bless, to protect, to prosper and to give abundant life like the real lion, his mission is to kill, to steal, to destroy and to devour. JOHN

10:10 We should not be deceived, the devil also has moved into many churches, behaving like the lion of the tribe of Judah, but his aim is to drag many to hell. 2Corinthians 11:14 That is the reason the bible is advising us, Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

1Corinthians 10:12 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. 2 Peter 3:17 And that's also why "THE POWERFUL FORCE OF PRAYER" is a must in our Christian walk with God.
