It was released after Russia annexed Crimea in 2014. From their havens in Washington, the think tank desk warriors, still " marooned in the Cold War " in Mark Danner ' s useful phrase, urged the U.S. to get tough and send " defensive " weapons to Ukraine, adding " The West has the capacity to stop Russia. The question is whether it has the will, " echoing all those valiant home front fighters past and present whose counsel and misinformation resulted in the deaths of some 100,000 ...
