Over your lifetime, has the use of the Shoshone language become more or less prevalent? When I grew up in the ' 70s and ' 80s, many people in my community spoke Shoshone. It wasn ' t until the later years, the ' 90s and 2000s, where I saw a definite decline in the use of our language. The older generations (people from the 60-90 year range) were the only people speaking the language ...
