The Time Riders series (nine books) has ended with this last one, The Infinity Cage. Time Riders is easily the best time travel fiction I have ever read, and I am so sorry to see it end. The deaths of characters we came to know and love as the books continued were hard to read; the author showed us he was not averse to plot twists we never expected.

Liam O'Connor, Maddy Carter, and Sal Vikram all should have died. But instead, they have been given a second chance-to work for an agency that no one knows exists. The TimeRiders' mission: to prevent time travel from destroying history-and the future. . . . When Maddy mistakenly opens a time window where and when she shouldn't, Liam is marooned sixty-five million years in the past, in the hunting ground of a deadly, and until now undiscovered, species of prehistoric predator. Can Liam make contact with Maddy and Sal before he's hunted down by dinosaurs, and without changing history so much that the world is overtaken by a terrifying new reality?
