The whole reason behind this is just false advertising. Verizon wanted to get everyone interested in the EnV Touch by telling them it was "app-friendly", when really it's compatible with hardly anything, because they didn't make compatible apps for it anywhere near the time it was put on the market, and still haven't.

The env touch has a touch screen and a full keyboard. I cant text on a touch screen but I wanted one. It works out both ways. There is a shortcut menu on the front screen so you can choose which shortcuts to put into it. If you are a person who texts a lot you would like this phone. There is a touch keyboard and a full keyboard.
