We can also learn from the mistakes of others, observing the consequences of their wrong choices. Some choices present good opportunities no matter which road we take—for example, when deciding which career path to follow or which school to attend.

I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember your wonders of old. Psalm 77:10 And I said, This is my infirmity:
but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High..
Psalm 28:5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

Psalm 77:11 I will remember the works of the LORD; yes, I ...
"For the Fallen" is a poem written by Laurence Binyon. It was first published in The Times in September 1914.. Over time, the third and fourth stanzas of the poem (usually now just the fourth) have been claimed as a tribute to all casualties of war, regardless of state.
This selection of the poem is often taken as an ode that is often recited at Remembrance Day services, and is what the term ...

We Shall Remember... by Rick Kuykendall J.W. Pepper Sheet ... We Shall Remember Them! Remembrance Day (known in the Ghanaian military sphere as Eleven-Eleven) is a memorial day observed in Commonwealth member states since the end of the First World War to remember members of their armed forces who have died in the line of duty. Remembrance day is observed in Ghana and most countries on 11 November to recall the end of hostilities of First World War on that date in 1918.
